Sharing the Gospel on the Beach

“Last year’s spring break I was down here partying on the beach when someone from this Cru conference shared the gospel with me. I was so ready to trust Christ that I prayed right there, which stunned those Christian girls. That was the beginning of the change in my life. When I returned to school, I got involved in Cru at my campus and joined a discipleship group. It has been one year and now I am back in Panama City Beach, but with the goal of sharing Christ with other spring breakers that just might be ready to receive Jesus.”

-Jenna’s testimony from spring break 2013

When I heard Jenna’s testimony at this year’s conference I had a déjà vu moment. Except this was not an anomaly of memory but a remembrance from 2012 where a girl shared the same experience--she had trusted Christ at spring break in 2011 and was back doing evangelism in 2012. The Holy Spirit really does continue to draw people to repentance and faith!

In terms of the evangelism training, one point that proved very helpful was the importance of “plus one conversations.”

Anti-God Conversion Walking with Christ

A person will likely have more than one conversation or experience with Christianity before becoming a Christian. Moving from say -5 to -4 is just as important as seeing someone move from -1 to zero. Both are necessary. I may not see someone receive salvation but my witness is nonetheless important in “planting the seed” and helping someone move one step closer.

Thank you for being part of sending me with our students. We saw record numbers of freshmen and sophomores join us and grow in evangelism!
