

Prayer Letter from Steven and Robin Ose

Double-Blessing

Dear Members of Trinity:

"Are they twins?" was the question we received about our boys for years as we walked down the streets in East Asia. In a country with the One-Child Policy, seeing a double-stroller automatically left a stranger seeing twins, which culturally they viewed as a double-blessing. Having just returned from a missions trip to East Asia we want to share another double-blessing.

Blessing

Robin and I returned after nine days in East Asia as part of Cru's Global Leadership Forum. This was a unique trip that brought American businessmen and gave them a platform in classrooms to teach about their field. This then led to small group discussions that often led to sharing the gospel. We gave 20+ classroom presentations in front of almost 2,000 students and faculty.

Our trip included 19 men and women from America who were entrepreneurs, business owners, medical doctors, corporate executives and real estate investors.

Double-Blessing

It also provided an opportunity to bless the long term team there. Just the zeal that fresh blood brings can be such an encouragement. The long term team that hosted us is made up of members from three nations and together has decades of missions experience. Read their comments from their team evaluation time.

- "I can truly say that [your trip] has been a powerful encouragement and blessing to our team."
- "A breath of fresh air to our team...and a tremendous encouragement."
- "Encouraged by how the group got to see what's going on and how we got to learn from them."
- "Seeing their excitement is visionary for us and helps us to open our eyes to what God is doing in our city."
- "Rejuvenated, re-energized, refreshed and encourage by them."
- "[I've] struggled to feel like what we do has a lot of meaning...but your team helped remind us that it is worth it."
- "Blown away by the tender-hearted love that so many of this group has for the students. The tears I was able to see them cry for the students was incredibly moving. It really showed that this group didn't just give of their time and money, but truly gave hearts. That makes me emotional even thinking about it now."

- "I loved Linc's excitement in sharing his faith story. He sounded like a little kid and was so fun to hear."

Robin and I thank you for helping make this trip possible. The Great Commission is worth it!

Jesus saves,

Steven and Robin

Even the bad pollution didn't stop the team from taking in the local sights
