

THE MESSENGER

A PUBLICATION OF TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH (ELCA)

~Welcome to Trinity Lutheran...Warm Hearts and Willing Hands~

Dear Family and Friends at Trinity,

Once upon a time, a long, long time ago, when I was married and living in Sioux Falls, my husband's niece Paula came for a visit. She was about five at the time. In an effort to find some activities that would both entertain and educate I took her to a reproduction of a Frontier Village located on the outskirts of Sioux Falls.

The village had everything you would expect a replica of a Frontier Village to have—a General Store filled with tourist-trap-type souvenirs, a pretend saloon, a one room school, a blacksmith's shop, a simple chapel with a pump organ, and more. It also had, as its main attraction, a herd of buffalo.

There was a viewing platform, a vantage point from the village where you could just watch the buffalo, but there was also a road that would allow you to drive down into the pasture area and view the buffalo "up close and personal". I asked Paula what she would like to do. She asked if there was an admission fee to drive into the grazing area and I explained that there was but that the fifty-cent fee certainly would not be prohibitive. Paula thought for a moment and then with five year old logic and wisdom asked, "Aunt Penny, do you think it really is wise to pay 50 cents to get trampled to death in a buffalo stampede?"

Paula had weighed the fun adventure of the moment against the possible risk to the future and she decided the risk was not worth the potential loss. Now I seriously doubt that we were, in fact, in any real danger of being trampled to death in an unprovoked, highly improbable buffalo stampede, but then again, who is to say?

We often face similar through far more serious decisions in life. We are called upon to make the choice between the impulsive action and the long range plan; between that which is fun-for-the moment or that which lasts-a-lifetime; the irresponsible fun or the responsible action. It is so in our spiritual lives as well when we are called upon to decide between the temporal and the eternal, between the things and values of this earth or the things and values of God, between our way or God's way. All of those choices have ramifications.

Next time you must make a decision between the immediate and the future, ask yourself, "Is it worth it?"

Jesus in Mark 8:36 asked it this way: "What does it profit a man (or woman) to gain the whole world and lose his/her soul?"

REFLECTIONS

ABOUT PENTECOST

It's color is red and it comes in wind and fire. It is celebrated as the Birthday of the Church and it is the day when the church received the gifts of the Holy Spirit. IT IS PENTECOST! It is a day, and it is a church season. The day of Pentecost is the fiftieth and last day of the Easter season; the season of Pentecost is the longest of the church seasons and continues until Christ the King Sunday, just before Advent. The first Sunday of Pentecost is Trinity Sunday

Pentecost was originally a Jewish observance, held 50 days after Passover, and was one of the three major annual festivals for Jews, which is why so many people were in Jerusalem and heard Peter and the other disciples proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ. Christians simply adopted the name of the day because of the significance of what happened on that day.

However, for the church, Pentecost does not only mark an event in church history; it is not just about looking back. For the Christian church the prayer of Pentecost remains, "Come, Holy Spirit, Come", and the church eagerly anticipates the gifts of the Spirit, and seeks ways to continue to use those gifts in sharing the Good News of God's love in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. In many churches, worshippers are encouraged to wear red—a sign of power (God's power and the church's power), a reminder of the blood sacrifice of Jesus, and also as a reminder that "the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church". In some churches, confirmation may be held on Pentecost, and the stoles of pastors and/or confirmands may have the symbol of the Holy Spirit, a white dove on them.

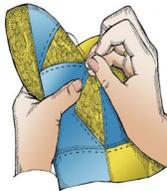

WELCA News

Ordinarily WELCA meets four times a year but because of COVID we missed our November and February meetings but we did get together in April. We were happy to have Pastor Penny at our meeting and thanked her for her devotions. One of the questions asked was about the profit from the Bakeless Bake Sale, which we held in December rather than having the annual cookie walk. The total intake was $1,775 which we feel was excellent.

At the end of March and beginning of April seven of us met for four and a half days and finished 67 quilts. We did wear masks, as we did at our WELCA meeting! Those who joined me were Marlene B., Marlene R., Geri, Sandy, Kathy W., and Linda M. Thanks to all these ladies for their time and labor.

We have 22 bags remaining for the school kits. Kathy will make at least eight more. The plan is to buy school supplies later in the summer when items go on sale. We have some extra supplies on hand. When completed, these will also be brought to World Relief.

The salad luncheon will not be held in June but we possibly might have a fundraiser in the fall.

We plan to have another WELCA meeting in August.

GIVEAWAY PIANO

A Scroll Piano is FREE for the taking.

(Several scrolls are also included)

Many years ago, this piano was brought to their home in Truman from California. It belongs to a member of Trinity.

If you want more information on this piano, you can contact the church office .

PRESIDENT'S UPDATE:

1. BEVCOM has completed the digging for the fiber optics and should be doing the hook up soon.

2. We have quite a few masks left. If anyone needs some or knows of a charity etc. that can use them, please let me know.

3. We are looking for input and ideas for church services this summer. Is there any interest in doing drive up services again, weather permitting? Let anyone on the council know your thoughts.

God's Blessings to you all.
